

Second Chance Pet Adoption

Mission Statement

Animals are the first and foremost priority of Second Chance Pet Adoptions. This non-profit 501 (c)(3) organization is dedicated to the memory of all animals who were caged, hunted, beaten, tortured, starved, chained, exploited, or simply ignored. We love them all, but sadly, they never knew it.

We are a No-Kill animal rescue. Our aims and objectives are to educate the public as to the needs of their pets, and to provide information on the proper care and treatment of existing animal cruelty laws, and will inform the public of possible abuses to their pets. We exist to make humane decisions for the welfare of the animals under our protection and to ensure that they are taken care of in the best way possible.

We provide a service to the community by clearing the streets of potentially dangerous and unhealthy conditions and by providing an adoption service designed to benefit both the animal and the adopting party.

We seek homes for unwanted, abandoned or stray animals through the process of adoption, which includes a veterinary health check for the animal and screening of the prospective owner, to help ensure that the pet and its new owner will be compatible. If for any reason they are not compatible, we take back the pet, who will again be offered for adoption.
